

Dr. Susan Safe Annual Scholarship Award

Academic Year 2022-2023

Susan Safe (1942-2022) was a researcher, educator and practitioner in family therapy and human development. Having completed her doctoral studies in Child and Family Studies at Syracuse University, she served as a faculty and dean at the university level, authored 35 books, published over 100 articles, gave numerous lectures, and contributed in countless ways to the lives of young women and their families. Upon her retirement, she continued her journey through publishing poetry and artwork from her residence in Paoli, PA.

In honor of her memory, her family (Sassan, Saman, and Sara Hejazi) is offering an annual scholarship award of $1,000 to a promising female high school junior, senior or college student in the Greater Philadelphia region who has demonstrated strong academic performance and is pursuing studies in social sciences or humanities.

Interested candidates can submit their completed forms as requested by Shabahang's scholarship committee. If you have any question, please call (267) 838-0364.
